Austrian traditional pastries - baking with Vivien

Friday, April 18, 2014

10:00 - 13:00

Participation fee: JPY 4,500

at the residence of Martin Glatz, Commercial Counsellor

3-13-3 Motoazabu, Minatoku, 106-0046

Vivien Tsuto-Oelberg has been living in Japan for eight years and joined the ABC in fall last year. She has been teaching making Austrian pastries as well as Austrian food culture to Japanese and Westerners alike.

The three hour lesson provides participants with a good introduction into baking Austrian pastries from Strudel to Gugelhupf. The participation fee covers all costs including ingredients etc.

Vivien speaks Japanese, her recipes are also available in Japanese. She has broad experience in where to source the ingredients necessary for preparing Austrian pastries here in Japan.

Since the number of participants is restricted due to space in the kitchen, please register as soon as possible.

Please register by mail to Ms Iwasaki/Mr Ackerer
